DISSEMINATION NUMBERED

CS PD-06

1. Six boxcars arrived in Guatemala City from Puerto Barrios on 19 May at 0600 hours. Six cars were scheduled to arrive in Guatemala City at 1200 hours on 19 May, and 10 boxcars were to leave Puerto Barrios for the capital city at 2200 hours on 19 May. The cars were being unloaded at night only. The entire freight-yard area in Guatemala City is heavily guarded by troops carrying sub-machine-guns and rifles.
2. Equal portions of the cargo are being carried by truck to the Base Militar and the Guardia de Honor. Col. Carlos Enrique DIAZ, Chief of the Guatemalan Armed Forces, and Col. Jose Angel SANCHEZ, Guatemalan Minister of Defense, entered the Guardia de Honor together the afternoon of 18 May, accompanied by several high-ranking Army officers.
3. President ARBENZ stated that he is planning to bring in European technicians and/or pilots and release the present U.S. Military Mission, as the members of the latter know nothing about the arms now arriving in Guatemala.

Field Comment. It is rumored that 15 MIG-15s are among the ALFHEM cargo.
